

- Now you can have the convenience and added security of keyed access with your Gordon Steel Basement door.
- The Gordon Cellalock can be used with all sizes and models of Gordon Celladoors including all past manufactured doors.
- You can access the basement from outside by using the key or exit from the inside by flicking the lock switch.
- The shipping carton comes with complete installation instructions including a list of tools required and a template for positioning.
- Consult your local dealers for pricing and availability.

